TOLKO VISTA™ | EVERHEART

Everheart offers a durable, versatile way to enhance outdoor spaces with the enduring beauty and authenticity of Douglas-fir heartwood.

Simply Beautiful

Featuring rich heartwood tones and refined grain, Tolko VISTA Everheart brings natural beauty and timeless character to exteriors. With the natural decay resistance of Douglas-fir heartwood, Everheart is ideal for decking, siding, soffits, trim, fascias, and architectural details.

Appearance

Installed: Light pinkish-brown tones with straight, tight grain.

Weathered: Rugged, natural gray tone.

Naturally Resistant to Rot & Decay

Made exclusively from the dense, naturally durable heartwood of Douglas fir, Everheart contains resins that provide inherent resistance to decay and insect damage, offering impressive outdoor performance and longevity.

Durability & Density

Known for its impressive durability and density, Everheart provides superior resistance to dents and wear, maintaining a timeless aesthetic in high traffic areas.
